

Young Engineer

of the Year Award 2005

Call for NOMINATIONS

THE
香港 HONG KONG INSTITUTION
工程師學會 OF ENGINEERS

Young Engineer

of the Year Award 2005

The Young Engineer of the Year Award is organised by the Hong Kong Institution of Engineers (HKIE) in recognition of the local outstanding young engineers who play an active and important role in building Hong Kong an international city. It is a prestigious honour of the local engineering profession for our young engineers.

Purposes

- To recognise and honour outstanding young engineers who have made commendable achievement and valuable contribution as engineers to the continuous development of Hong Kong.
- To encourage active participation and contribution of young engineers to the community of Hong Kong through involvement in engineering and community affairs.
- To promote and foster professionalism, dedication and enthusiasm among young engineers.

Eligibility

Nominations are invited for the selection of the Young Engineer of the Year Award 2005. Candidates should

- normally reside in Hong Kong in the past three years;
- currently be a Fellow or Member in good standing of the HKIE;
- be of age 35 or below at the closing deadline of nomination on 15 December 2004;
- be proposed by a nominator who should be a Fellow or Member of the HKIE or a public/private organisation. Each nominator or nominating organisation shall nominate one entry only. Self-nomination will not be accepted; and
- be supported by two referees who should be a Fellow or Member of the HKIE.

Selection Criteria

- Involvement, contribution and achievement in engineering profession.
- Involvement, contribution and achievement in the community of Hong Kong.
- Participation and contribution in the HKIE.

Selection Process

A short list of entries will be drawn up on the basis of the proposals for nominations. Shortlisted candidates will be invited for interviews by the Panel of Judges in February 2005. The Award winner will be notified at the end of February 2005.

Award Presentation

Presentation of the Award will be made at the HKIE Annual Dinner on 31 March 2005. The Grand Prize winner will receive a trophy and an award certificate.

Proposal for Nomination

Proposal for nomination must be comprised of:

- A completed Nomination Form (Nomination Form can be downloaded in Microsoft Word format at the HKIE website: www.hkie.org.hk under Download section).
- Two referees' reports to provide written character reference for the candidate, which confirm his/her achievement and contribution as an engineer to the profession and the community. Judges may contact the referees for further information or clarification, if necessary.
- Copies of relevant supporting documentation, where appropriate.

Deadline

All proposals for nominations must reach the HKIE Secretariat no later than 5:00pm on 15 December 2004 and address to:

Chairman of Panel of Judges Young Engineer of the Year Award 2005

The Hong Kong Institution of Engineers
9/F Island Beverley
1 Great George Street
Causeway Bay Hong Kong

Enquiries

For further information and enquiries, please contact

Ms Ellen Lee, Manager – Publications & PR, The HKIE.

Tel: (852) 2895 4446 Fax: (852) 2577 7791 Email: pub_pr@hkie.org.hk

Website: <http://www.hkie.org.hk>